Tanya Wheelock

Stage • Screen • Voice-Over

Born and raised in the suburbs of New Jersey, and now based in central Florida, Tanya Wheelock has a theatrical history spanning more than twenty years. Tanya has performed at multiple regional theatres in New Jersey and Florida since she began acting in 2000. A regular performer at Universal Orlando Resort, she is no stranger to performing for audiences from all walks of life and all over the world.

Tanya has a Bachelor's degree in Theatre with a concentration in Acting from Centenary University, where she graduated Summa Cum Laude. Beyond her degree, she has studied and honed her skills extensively. Tanya's studies have included improv at SAK Comedy Lab, on-screen acting under The Walking Dead's Jordan Woods-Robinson, Acting Through Song with Judy Kuhn, and voice-over under Richard Tatum, Mick Wingert, and Steve Blum

Tanya co-starred as a Ravager in Marvel Studio's WHAT IF...? and featured as Rachel in the Indie thriller UNSHELTERED. She has also partnered with Will Phillips, developing and co-writing the sci-fi podcast series THE MOONSTRUCK. Her short films BETTER USES FOR THE INFINITY GAUNTLET: A SUPER SATIRE and FREE PUDDING played the festival circuit in the United States and Internationally in 2019 and 2020

When Tanya is not acting, she enjoys looking for pictures of cute animals and riding roller coasters. She and her twin sister share an immense love for Marvel, Harry Potter, and Disney. Their mother passed from breast cancer when they were 18, and Marvel honored her by naming Jane Foster's Cancer Center in the Mighty Thor comics after her - The Maria Wheelock Cancer Center.
